Be Ready to Run - Super egg

ABOUT THE SERIES

One of the themes of the Matsueda work is to shape an "impossible moment." To illustrate this theme, his works consist of 3-dimensional solids born from motifs protruding from 2-dimensional planes. The author seeks to overcome the limitations of the printing industry and its products -planar objects. The artwork of each pattern depicts an individual outside of his or her daily life and vacationing. It is also one of Matsueda's themes that change will occur simply by stepping out of one's current situation.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Yuki Matsueda was born in Ibaraki, Japan, and received a PhD in design from Tokyo University of the Arts in 2010.

His work aims to animate sign and signifier, by identifying the numerous elements of a sign and extruding them onto different levels. The resulting sculpture is enveloped in acrylic.

Matsueda has received several prizes, including the 2009 Nippon Paint Design Center Award, and his work has been exhibited in Tokyo, Seoul, and Los Angeles.
